

JUST FOR JUNIOR
PARENTS

COLLEGE
PLANNING
WORKSHOPS

The Parenting Continuum is offering a series of cost-effective college planning seminars to parents that will provide everything needed to know to help guide students through the college planning and admissions process, maximizing students' chances of getting into a college of their choice.

In depth topics:

- Getting organized and self-assessments
- How to select colleges
- Overview of the financial aid process
- The nuts and bolts of applying to and being selected by the UCs, CSUs, private schools, and community colleges
- Testing
- The college application
- Attributes of a strong applicant
- College admission case studies for both UCs and private institutions

COMMENTS FROM PAST PARTICIPANTS

- "So far this has been the most complete and comprehensive presentation for parents with junior students who are going through the maze that is "college planning."
- "You both have taken a great deal of mystery out of the whole affair, and I am truly thankful for all your efforts. Keep up the great work."
- "Provided a great overview of a very complex topic and put many things in perspective."
- "Extremely organized. Time-efficient. I can't think of how you can improve the program."
- "I enjoyed the relaxed, down to earth way in which the copious amount of information was presented. Thanks."

Together Vicki Kleinman and Betsy McSherry have been counseling students in all aspects of the college admissions process for more than 20 years at Lynbrook and Monta Vista High Schools and have presented dozens of College Planning workshops for both parents and students. They offer their specialized knowledge and unique insights, guiding one through what can be a very confusing process.
