

Steps Into...Life After High School

Sponsored by LGSUHSD's Workability I, Parenting Continuum and SHS Parent Ed

Date: October 19, 2016

Time: 7:00pm – 8:30pm

Saratoga High School Library

For Students and Parents of Grades 9-12

Admission is free

Bring your high-schooler to hear from a panel who will speak about their lives during and after high school. They will share inspirational stories about their unique educational choices and the resources and support systems they utilized. You will hear about perseverance, resilience, motivation, and about overcoming challenges in finding their career paths.

Meet speakers with profiles such as:

- SHS Science teacher who has learning differences
- LGHS parent who supported her students through high school
- SHS senior student who overcame challenges to be successful
- LGHS graduate who now teaches at Silicon Valley Career Technical Education (SVCTE)
